

Lutz' knotted fibrations in contact topology

Frédéric Bourgeois

Lutz introduced the notion of knotted fibration in his constructions of invariant contact structures. I will describe the significant impact this notion had on the study of contact manifolds, including its most recent developments in contact topology.